Exporting a video from Premiere

-Make sure the yellow highlight box is around the timeline

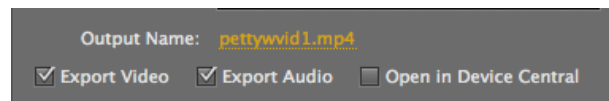

-File>Export>Media

-Export Setting Window opens

-Export Settings info on Right side
-Change Format to H.264

-Click on the yellow underline name of your project beside Output Name

Exporting a video from Premiere

-Choose your user account on left -Choose your Premiere folder -Make sure name of project is correct -Uncheck Hide Extension in lower left -Save	-Click Export at bottom right of Exports Settings Window
-Encoding window will appear as the video is exporting	-Check your exported video by watching all the way through before turning it. -Click on the Finder, and select your user account, Premiere folder, and then double click your exported video to watch